

Dear Distinguished Guest,

We are pleased to invite you to attend the International Investment and Trade Promotion Conference in Wengan in Guizhou Province, China. The conference will be held on April 28th, 2012 and last three days. It is a great opportunity to meet decision makers in Guizhou Province, explore business opportunities, and exchange culture experience.

We assist the China Council for the Promotion of International Trade and the government of Guizhou Province to organize this event. The main topics will be focused on investment opportunities in Guizhou Province. As a distinguished guest, all your expenses after arriving to the airport will be covered by our local hosts including transportation, hotel, and tour costs. The local government will provide some special and important investment projects in the energy, mining, travels, hotels, infrastructures, agricultures and manufacture industries.

The seats are limited. We look forward to hear back from you soon.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Lijie Zhu
